

Partnership for Young London

Theory of Change

VISION

Young People's Right to Well Being is Recognised and Fulfilled

Aims

Better Connection Between Policy, Practice and Resourcing

High Quality Services in London Delivered in a Coordinated Manner

OUTCOMES

Increased
Understanding of Need

Improved Partnership Working

Improved Skills Leading to More Effective Delivery and Enhanced Impact

Increased Awareness of Issues and Improved Collaboration on Policy

CONNECTING

DEVELOPING

INFLUENCING

ACTIVITIES

Weekly and Monthly
Updates

Social Media

Networking Events and Roundtables

Blogs Profiling Best Practice

Attendance at Meetings and Forums

Group Workshops and Training

Targeted Support

Specialist Resources

Intelligence Gathering

Production of Research and Reports

Campaigning

Building Alliances

ASSUMPTIONS

Networking Alone Will Lead to Joined Up Working

Skilling Up the Workforce will Improve Practice and Influence the Direction of Management Activities

Partnership for Young
London is the Best Platform to Build and Drive Partnerships Forward

Organisations Have the Capacity and Appetite for Collaboration

Best Practice Isn't Being Shared

February
2017